Reflection – Fourth Sunday of Easter (Cycle C)

Gospel: John 10:27–30

On this Fourth Sunday of Easter, often referred to as Good Shepherd Sunday, we are reminded of the deep and personal relationship Christ desires with each of us. In today's Gospel, Jesus says, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." These words are not only comforting but also challenging. They assure us that we are never alone—Jesus knows us intimately, calls us by name, and offers us eternal life. But they also prompt us to ask: Do we truly recognize His voice in our daily lives? Are we attentive and obedient to His call?

This Sunday emphasizes Jesus as the Good Shepherd, a powerful image of care, guidance, and self-giving love. A shepherd knows his sheep and is willing to lay down his life for them. In a world filled with noise, distractions, and competing "voices," it becomes essential to tune our hearts to His voice—a voice that speaks of peace, mercy, and truth.

The first reading from the Acts of the Apostles shows Paul and Barnabas boldly proclaiming the word of God, even in the face of rejection. Their courage is an example for us to follow Christ without fear. The second reading from Revelation gives us a vision of hope—of a great multitude gathered before the throne of God, having "washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb." This vision reassures us that the journey with the Good Shepherd leads to eternal joy, where "God will wipe away every tear."

As we reflect today, we are invited to deepen our trust in Jesus. He is not a distant leader but a present guide who walks with us through every valley and every joy. May we strive to listen more attentively, follow more faithfully, and live in the security of His loving care.

Let us pray!

We keep in our prayers the sick, the homebound, and the forgotten members in our community and those who love and minister to them.

FOR YOUR SUPPORT

Thank You Message After the Death of a Mother:

On behalf of my family and me, I would like to express our deepest gratitude for the love, support, and sympathy we have received following the passing of our beloved mother. Your kind words, prayers, presence, and thoughtful gestures have brought us comfort during this difficult time.

Losing a mother leaves a space in the heart that can never truly be filled, but knowing that she was loved and remembered by so many has brought us peace and strength. Thank you for standing with us, for sharing in our grief, and for honoring her life with such compassion.

We are truly blessed to have such a caring community around us. May God bless you all for your kindness.

With heartfelt thanks,
Fr. Lorenzo Salandanan

Thank you.
