SUNDAY REFLECTION...

Gospel Reading
Matthew 11:25-30

Jesus prays in thanks to God, who has revealed himself to the lowly.

Today’s reading from Matthew’s Gospel comes after a discourse in which Jesus reproaches people who have witnessed his mighty deeds yet still lack belief. In this context, today’s Gospel explains the reason for this unbelief and reveals what is necessary for faith. Today’s Gospel also continues to enhance our understanding of discipleship as last week’s Gospel did.

Jesus first prays in thanksgiving to God who has made himself known to Jesus’ disciples. He praises God who has made himself known to the “little ones” and not to the wise and learned. As in other recent readings from Matthew’s Gospel, a contrast is made here between the unbelieving Pharisees, who are wise and learned, and the faithful disciples, tax collectors, and sinners with whom Jesus keeps company. The second part of this reading calls to our attention the unity between the Father and the Son. God has made himself known through Jesus, and in knowing Jesus, we come to know the Father. In Jesus’ life and in his person, God reveals himself to us.

In the concluding sentences of today’s Gospel, Jesus’ teaching is again contrasted to the teaching of the Pharisees. This common theme of Matthew’s Gospel probably reflects tension that existed between Jesus and the Pharisees and between the Pharisees and the community of Christians for whom Matthew wrote. Pharisaic Judaism became the predominant form of Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem about 70 A.D. Here that tension is expressed as alternative paths of holiness. The careful observance of the Mosaic law taught by the Pharisees could be experienced by some as difficult and burdensome. In contrast, Jesus’ way of holiness is presented as uncomplicated and even restful.

Helping the Venezuela Earthquake Victims with Your Generosity

Our brothers and sisters in the Venezuela are facing great suffering after the recent earthquake. Many have lost their homes, livelihoods, and even loved ones. In this time of hardship, let us open our hearts and hands to help. Your generosity—whether through prayers, financial assistance, or fundraising efforts—can bring hope and relief to those most in need. Together, we can make a difference and show that love knows no distance. Let us be instruments of God’s compassion and healing.

“Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.” — Matthew 25:40

Your gift to ShareLife transforms fear into peace

Matthew's mother, Anna, spent years lying awake at night, fearing for her son's future. Diagnosed with autism as a baby, Matthew's needs became more complex as he grew. She did everything she could to support him, but when his aggression became too difficult to manage, she made the heartbreaking decision to find community housing for him. Through your generous heart, Matthew found Mary Centre, a Catholic Charities agency you support through ShareLife, where he is truly understood.

From the moment he arrived, he was met with patience, kindness, and the care he needed to thrive. For the first time in years, Anna could finally breathe again. "I never thought I'd find a place where my son would be safe," Anna shares. "Now, I finally have peace." Your gift to ShareLife gives mothers peace of mind and a future filled with hope. Thus far we have raised $22,098.00 toward our goal of $26,500.00. Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.
