SUNDAY REFLECTION...

Gospel Reading
Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus teaches his disciples how to settle disputes in the Church.

Today's Gospel reading is taken from a chapter of Matthew's Gospel, which is sometimes called the "discourse on the Church" or the "church order" discourse. In this part of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus speaks more directly about matters of Church discipline and order. In today's reading we find one of only three instances in which Jesus uses the word church in Matthew's Gospel. In Matthew's record of Jesus' teaching, we can hear echoes of the kinds of issues faced by the early Christian community.

In the first part of the "discourse on the Church" (Matthew 18:1-14), Matthew addresses the Christian community's concerns about rank. Jesus responds to the disciples' question about who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Jesus indicates that those who wish to enter the kingdom of heaven must be like children, and he cautions those leaders who might lead these "little ones" astray. He also responds with the parable of the lost sheep, indicating how God will seek out and bring back those "little ones" who have strayed.

In today's Gospel reading, Matthew 18:15-20, Jesus addresses a common occurrence in the Christian community: a dispute between two members of the Church. Jesus outlines a procedure for settling such matters fairly. The victim should privately address the offender and attempt to resolve the dispute without outside involvement. If that fails, then the victim should bring two or three witnesses and confront the offender again. If the dispute is still unresolved, the matter should be brought to the attention of the entire community. If the offender refuses to adhere to the reparations prescribed by the community, then Jesus suggests that the offender may be expelled from the Church.

Jesus does not discourage disagreement within the community of the Church; he acknowledges the reality of conflict and error and offers his disciples a means for addressing such matters. It is in the conclusion to this teaching that the message of hope is found: Jesus is present with the community and will guide the community in its relations. If decisions are taken in prayer, then the community can be assured of God's assistance.

September: A New Beginning for Our Parish

As we enter the month of September, we also begin a new chapter in our parish life. Ministries, catechism classes, and parish programs come alive again after the summer break. It is a time to renew our commitment to serve, to grow in faith, and to walk together as one community. May Our Lady of the Assumption guide us and intercede for us as we begin this new pastoral year with hope and joy.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

PARKING ANNOUNCEMENT

Dear brothers and sisters,

May we kindly ask everyone to take note of the new parking directions around our church.

Because of the recent parking lot work and the changes to the parking spaces, please follow the designated parking areas and the posted signs when you arrive for Mass and other parish activities.

For everyone's safety and convenience:

- Please park only in the designated parking spaces.
- Kindly follow the new traffic flow and directional signs.
- Please do not park in areas marked "No Parking."
- Keep the designated fire lanes, entrances, and access areas clear.
- Please be patient and considerate as everyone becomes familiar with the new arrangement.

We sincerely appreciate your cooperation. These changes are intended to make our parking area safer, more organized, and more convenient for everyone.

Thank you for your patience and understanding, and may God bless you all.

Our Lady of the Assumption, pray for us.
