SUNDAY REFLECTION…

Gospel Reading

Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus teaches that when the Son of Man comes in glory, he will judge the nations, separating the sheep from the goats.

Today's Gospel passage is the conclusion of Jesus' discourse with his disciples. It is about the end of time, the coming of the Son of Man, and the final judgment. We hear this description of the final judgment at the conclusion of our liturgical year, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King. In the context of Matthew's Gospel, this passage might also be read as a conclusion of Matthew's report on Jesus' life and ministry; the remaining chapters report the events of Jesus' Passion and Resurrection.

In today's Gospel, Jesus describes to his disciples the scene of the judgment of the Son of Man. All the nations will be assembled before him, and he will separate them as a shepherd separates sheep and goats upon their return from the pasture. The judgments made by the Son of Man will be based upon the acts of mercy shown to the least ones—the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, the ill, and the imprisoned. Indeed, Jesus, who suffered on the Cross, identifies himself with the least ones.

Recall that last week's parable of the talents taught us that the gifts that we have been given are intended to be used for the service of others, especially the least among us. Our judgment before God will be based not only on how we have used these gifts and talents, but also on how we have extended ourselves in service to these least ones. Indeed, Jesus tells us that whenever we have served these least ones, we have served Christ himself.

When we read today's Gospel in the context of the chapters that follow in Matthew's Gospel, we learn the extent to which Jesus identifies with the least ones. In accepting death on the cross, Jesus shows himself to be one of the hungry, the naked, the ill, and the imprisoned. To accept Jesus is to accept him who suffered and died on the Cross as one of the least ones.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATIONS

We are still accepting the registrations for First Communion and Confirmation until the end of November. Please bring the filled out form, baptismal certificate, and $40 cash. You can download the forms from the website at https://olassumptionto.archtoronto.org/

A SPECIAL APPEAL

FOR OUR NEW TABERNACLE

Our parish is preparing to replace our present tabernacle with a new and worthy tabernacle for the Blessed Sacrament.

The tabernacle holds the greatest treasure of our faith: Jesus Christ, truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. It is therefore our desire to provide a beautiful and dignified tabernacle that reflects our reverence and love for Our Lord in the Eucharist.

We humbly ask for the generosity of our parishioners and friends of Our Lady of the Assumption Parish to help us with this important project. Contributions, large or small, are gratefully welcomed.

May the Lord bless you abundantly for your generosity, and may our new tabernacle stand as a lasting sign of our parish's faith in the Real Presence and love for Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

"This is my Body… This is my Blood."

Parish Office Announcement

Notice of Resignation – Parish Secretary

Our Lady of the Assumption Parish wishes to inform our parishioners that Ms. Holly Pedrosa will be concluding her service as Parish Secretary effective November 30, 2026.

We take this opportunity to express our sincere gratitude to Holly for her dedication, service, and contributions to our parish community. We wish her every blessing and success in her future endeavours.

Please be advised that the process of selecting her replacement is currently underway. Further information regarding the new parish secretary and any transition arrangements will be announced in due course.

For those who wants to apply for the position, kindly look at our website for info and you can send your resume to Lsalandanan@archtoronto.org.

We ask for your understanding and cooperation during this transition.

Thank you, and may God continue to bless our parish community.
